Thavy Mam – Thavy's spiritual set is unique. With a tumultuous life, she was saved from drowning by an angel at 4. In 2001, she had 5 spontaneous OBEs in 6 months, "returning to Home to God." In 2015, still experiencing emotional devastation; she made a decision that caused her spiritual transformation to accelerate. Spiritual Beings began waking her to energetic healing, channeling, Egyptian and yoga postures, tai chi, healing modalities from all over the world and timelines, along with the ability to do deliberate OBEs. She now uses a combination of all these to assist others in their own healing transformation. Her spiritual skill set is a multitude of tools.

Chuck Swedrock – IANDS board member and co-founder of IANDS Sharing Groups Online (ISGO™), steps out from behind the scenes to share a life journey that has evolved from a basic spiritual framework to gradually include aspects of full unity consciousness. Joining IANDS in 1996 helped prepare him when he had a flatline NDE in 2002. Invited to join the IANDS board in 2005, he then benefited from in-depth connections with many prominent experiencers and researchers of near-death and similar experiences.

Louisa Peck – Raised atheist with a disdain for anyone who believed differently. After graduating from Vassar College, while partying in a night club, she suffered a cardiac arrest while ingesting a drug. Her NDE progressed from a symbolic landscape into the heart of the sun, where she encountered a being of immense, indescribable love. Sent back against her will, she was unable to face the ridicule from family, society, and her rational mind. She chose to deny her NDE's reality. Despite striving to remain atheist, she experienced over a dozen paranormal events in the next two decades that changed her mind. Today, hearing regularly from her guardian angel, and occasionally from deceased loved ones, she refers to herself as an "Accidental Medium."

Chris Batts – At 6 months he was thrown into a dumpster by his biological mother. This became the root for suicidal thoughts throughout life, eventually leading to a suicide attempt, when he experienced his NDE. He loves music and sign language. He is currently in college with a Deaf Studies major, with the goal of becoming an interpreter. During his NDE he met angels who have helped him in his love for working with kids.

James Bruton – While filming African wildlife, Jim Bruton invented the satellite video phone for transmitting live war coverage, allowing live global streaming from any location on earth. He became a war correspondent in the Middle East for NBC news, reporting live from Battle. His passion – building and flying WW1 reproduction aircraft – led to a crash and near death experience

Gwendolyn Awen Jones – A medical intuitive, spiritual healer and award-winning author was born in England with a gift of sight into inter-dimensional worlds. After an out of body experience at age 16 she understood her spirit is what animated her physical body. In her early twenties she trained with an old Mayan healer in Mexico and learned to safely traverse the inner realms. She now acts as a spiritual guide and healer for those unable to fully return after a close encounter with death that can often leave their being in need of repair at many levels. She regularly helps souls who are lost and confused after death to reach the light.

Lesley Lupo – Lesley had an NDE during a stampede of horses. In her book "Remember, Every Breath Is Precious" a newer level of spiritual volunteers was mentioned. She will dive deeper into an explanation of these "blindfolded" Bodhisattvas, who she came to call "Houdini Kids." If you identify as an old soul who grew up a misfit, discover what your mission on Earth might be. These Houdini Kids volunteered to be born into younger families to be an odd duck, the rejects. By this sacrifice, they broke the chain of generational prejudices. Come and hear the reasons why.
